Tax Planning For S Corporations

U.S. corporations can elect to be taxed at the corporate level or at the shareholder level. Those that elect the shareholder option are referred to as S corporations. "S" stands for Subchapter S of Chapter 1 of the Internal Revenue Code. No income tax is applied at the corporate level. Instead, all income is taxed using the personal income tax rates.

S Corporation Taxation: an Introduction

From my experience, I estimate that S-corp owners can slash personal payroll taxes by $8,000-$20,000 a year by lowering their inflated salaries. Lowering your salary allows the owner to take their remaining S-corp earnings as distributions which aren't subject to self employment tax.
